Question Answer What is the difference between 'who' and 'whom' in advanced English grammar? 'Who' is used as a subject in a sentence, while 'whom' is used as an object. For example, 'Who is calling?' versus 'To whom should I address the letter?' In formal contexts, 'whom' is preferred as the object of a verb or preposition. How do you correctly use subjunctive mood in complex sentences? The subjunctive mood is used to express wishes, hypotheticals, or demands. For example, 'I suggest that he be present' or 'If I were you, I would reconsider.' Note that in the subjunctive, 'be' remains unchanged regardless of the subject. What are the rules for using relative clauses with 'who', 'whom', 'whose', 'which', and 'that'? Relative clauses provide additional information about a noun. Use 'who' and 'whom' for people, with 'who' as the subject and 'whom' as the object. 'Whose' indicates possession. 'Which' refers to animals or objects, and 'that' can be used for both people and objects in restrictive clauses. When should you use the past perfect tense in complex sentences? Use the past perfect tense to indicate an action completed before another past action. For example, 'She had finished her homework before he arrived.' It helps clarify the sequence of events in the past. How can you distinguish between restrictive and non-restrictive relative clauses? Restrictive clauses are essential to the meaning of a sentence and are not set off by commas, e.g., 'The students who studied hardest passed.' Non-restrictive clauses provide additional, non-essential information and are set off by commas, e.g., 'My brother, who lives in Canada, is visiting soon.' What is the correct placement of adverbs in complex sentences? Adverbs typically modify verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs and are placed close to the word they modify. In complex sentences, adverbs of time or frequency often come at the beginning or end, e.g., 'She quickly finished her work before leaving.' For emphasis, placement can vary, but clarity is key. 6 How do you correctly form and use conditional sentences in advanced grammar? Conditional sentences describe hypothetical situations. Use 'if' + past tense for the second conditional (e.g., 'If I were rich, I would travel the world'), and 'if' + present perfect or past perfect for third conditional (e.g., 'If he had studied, he would have passed'). The first conditional uses 'will' for real future possibilities. What are common errors with subject-verb agreement in complex sentences? Common errors include mismatching singular subjects with plural verbs or vice versa, especially when subjects are separated by phrases. For example, 'The list of items is on the table' (correct) versus 'The list of items are on the table' (incorrect). Ensure the verb agrees with the main subject, not the noun within a prepositional phrase. How is the passive voice correctly used in advanced complex sentences? The passive voice emphasizes the action or the recipient of the action. Form it with the correct tense of 'to be' plus the past participle of the main verb. For example, 'The project was completed by the team.' Use passive voice when the doer is unknown or unimportant. What strategies can be used to master complex sentence structures in advanced grammar? To master complex structures, practice combining simple sentences using conjunctions, subordinators, and relative clauses. Study sentence diagrams, analyze advanced texts, and write regularly to improve syntactic variety. Understanding clause types and their functions is key to constructing sophisticated sentences.
